About the CVCFSC

The Central Ventura County Fire Safe Council is a 501c3 non-profit organization dedicated to reducing the threat of wildfire to farms, ranches, urban neighborhoods and infrastructure through partnership with the community. This includes community outreach, educational programs, and collaboration with local, state, and federal fire protection agencies.

Established in 2010, the CVCFSC serves as a valuable resource to reduce the threat of wildfire to the community.

For additional information on how you can become involved in the CVCFSC as a volunteer or sponsor please contact Jenise at 805.804.7735 or jenisewagar@gmail.com.

We welcome your involvement!

Programs

Programs offered by the CVCFSC include:

• Development of ranch plans containing information for fire personnel including maps depicting water sources, safety zones, and evacuation routes for ranch personnel and domestic animals, including livestock.

• An agricultural employee identification card to aid public safety personnel in the event of a fire.

• Vegetation management and fuel reduction programs, including chipper days for residents throughout Ventura County.

• Fire safety education and awareness programs targeting local residents and landowners.
Businesses, individuals, and families are invited to support the CVCFSC in its efforts by becoming a donor. All funds will go towards fire safety awareness programs and pre-fire planning activities aimed at reducing wildfire in Ventura County.

Contribution Levels:

- Lupine ($100): Listing on website and recognition at annual donor event.
- Sugar Bush ($250): All of the above plus logo on CVCFSC website with link to donor’s website.
- Manzanita ($500): All of the above plus logo on 2018 CVCFSC brochure, sponsorship of one CVCFSC event and recognition at event.
